

The public has a right to hear the real news;not just the propaganda from the White House. There should be more owners in order to insure this right.